The Los Angeles Business Council Presents
16th Mayoral Housing, Transportation & Jobs Summit
Smart Growth and Equity in an Expanding Economy

Friday, November 3 | 7:00 am - 2:00 pm
UCLA Meyer & Renee Luskin Conference Center

Featured Speakers

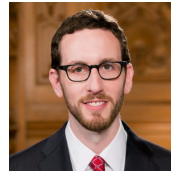

The Honorable Scott Wiener

Senator, State of California

Addressing California's Landmark Housing Package

Senator Wiener, fresh off passing his monumental legislation, SB35, will discuss the new package of housing bills headed for Governor Brown's desk.

SB35 will streamline the approval process in cities that have fallen behind state housing goals, by easing some local development restrictions.

Phil Ansell

Director, LA County Office of Homeless Initiative

Plans for the new $1 Billion Measure H Fund to Fight Homelessness

As Director of the LA County Office of Homeless Initiative, Phil oversees the new funding from Measure H, passed by LA County voters in March 2017. Measure H is projected to raise $355 million annually for next 10 years. Phil will discuss the adopted three-year $1 billion plan to fund rental subsidies, services to support those placed in permanent housing, outreach and strengthening and expansion of the shelter system.

Alice Carr

National Head of Community Development Banking, JPMorgan Chase & Co.

A Financial Institution's Perspective on the Affordable Housing Market in Los Angeles

Alice oversees the Pro Neighborhoods initiative, a $125 million, five-year initiative by JPMorgan Chase & Co. to help bring economic opportunity to distressed neighborhoods across the country, and is responsible for leading the global bank's affordable real estate operations across 12 states, including some of the fastest-growing markets in the world.
